

THE DALES WAY

Accommodation

The following list of accommodation along the Dales Way is not comprehensive. Inclusion of accommodation/facilities in this list is not a recommendation; the author has not inspected any of the properties.

If you find accommodation listed here that is closed or unwelcoming to walkers, or know of suitable accommodation that we have left out, please let me know via the publishers or Facebook. There is no reason to suppose that accommodation providers are not receptive to walkers, but it would be wise to enquire before booking; and the same goes if you are travelling with a dog.

The author manages a Facebook group – THE DALES WAY – on which you can put your own recommendations.

If you are an accommodation provider and would like adding to the list, do get in touch via the publisher or Facebook; there is no charge for inclusion.

The list can be downloaded from the Cicerone Press website (www.cicerone.co.uk/943/accommodation).
